PERFORMERS

Cellist Debra Fayroian has performed throughout the United States, Canada and Europe captivating audiences with her musical insight and beauty of tone. Ms. Fayroian became a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in 1976, leaving her post as Principal Cellist of the Toledo Symphony Orchestra. Concurrently, she has been solo cellist with Detroit Chamber Winds & Strings and appears as a guest soloist with many of Michigan's orchestras.

Debra has been guest artist and clinician to the Interlochen Center for the Arts, Bravo! Colorado Music Festival and the Great Lakes Chamber Music Festival. She has given master classes at The University of Michigan, Eastern Michigan and Oakland Universities.

Ms. Fayroian has served as founding Director of Strings at the Cranbrook School (MI) Summer Music Academy, on the Michigan American String Teachers Association (MASTA) and Oakland University, MI. Department of Music Boards of Directors. From 1990-2004 she served as founding Artistic Director of the Nightnotes Series in Birmingham (MI); 2004-2007 as Music Director of the Manitou Music Festival (MI) and currently as Music Advisor for Oakland Township's (MI) Music in the Meadows concert series.

In 2006 Ms. Fayroian retired from the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. She now lives in Northwest Michigan and has recently established Chamber Music North and Northern Cello Retreat.

Partner to many distinguished musicians, Michele Cooker has performed on many concert series and festivals throughout the United States, Canada, and in Mexico. She has appeared on PBS and has recorded several programs broadcast live on WFMT radio in Chicago and the CBC in Canada.

Ms. Cooker teaches a large private studio of students and is well known as a chamber music coach. She is a board member of Kerrytown Concert House, Ann Arbor, MI. Her favorite pastimes include rock garden design and her five beautiful Schnauzers.
